SPONSORSHIP BENEFITS

Supporting the Forest Society is not about doing good, it is about doing well. It is about investing in the long-term vitality of your business, your associates and your customer base. Your support, through a business membership, is all about partnering with the Forest Society, and its current 10,000 individual and business members to balance economic opportunity with sound conservation practices. Our members are part of a tight knit group of dedicated people who all share a similar goal—to preserve the open spaces that make New Hampshire so special.

As a business member you'll be helping to protect and perpetuate critical resources, including forests, wetlands, drinking water supplies, and our scenic and recreational landscapes.

BUSINESS BENEFITS

PARTNERSHIP with the Forest Society and its conservation mission

EXPOSURE to the Forest Society's audience of 10,000 member households, including our more than 170 volunteers who live throughout the state

ALIGNMENT with New Hampshire's natural resources and tourist economies

Members Make the Difference

Our 10,000 members make us what we are today—one of the most effective statewide land conservation organizations in the country.

As a business member you'll be helping to protect and perpetuate critical resources, including forests, wetlands, drinking water supplies, and our scenic and recreational landscapes for everyone to enjoy.
